Know Your Rights

Request that your Union Representative be present!

U.S. Supreme Court ruled in 1975 "Weingarten" that an employee has certain rights when questioned by their employer. The following are rights that were granted under this case. It applies only when your employer is interviewing you for the purposes of determining whether discipline is warranted. It does not apply when the discipline is already decided.

1. You have a right to Union representation, but you must ask for that representation.
2. You must ask for Union representation from the person doing the questioning. The questioner must be told that you do not want to proceed without Union representation.
3. If the discipline has already been decided upon by the Employer, your right to representation is not there; however, you only need to listen – you do NOT have to answer any further questions.
4. This rule does NOT apply to everyday conversations between a supervisor and an employee regarding performance of job duties and normal work performance.
5. After you have requested Union representation, the Employer rights are:
  - a. They can grant your request and bring in a Union Representative.
  - b. They can discontinue the interview and proceed with the investigation without your participation.
  - c. The Employer can offer you the choice of proceeding without Union representation.

Remember:

What you say can be used against you. Know your rights!
Demand Union representation when you are facing discipline.

ARTICLE 1 - UNION SHOP

SECTION A. The Union shall be the sole collective bargaining agent for all employees working in the classifications covered by this Agreement for the purpose of collective bargaining with the Employer. There shall be no discrimination against any employee for Union activity.

SECTION B. All work performed in the Meat Department will be done by members of the bargaining unit. For the purpose of this Agreement, the Meat Department is defined as the area occupied by the meat storage rooms, the meat preparation rooms and the service and/or self-service display cases where fresh, smoked, cooked and frozen meats, poultry, fish or seafood are offered for retail sale. The pricing of all meat products shall be done on the premises.

SECTION C. If an employer transfers the cutting or fabricating of any retail cuts of fresh meat, presently being performed in its retail store or stores, to a location in the Duluth area, outside of said retail store or stores, such plant or action shall be under the jurisdiction of the Union's Local 1189 Meat Unit.

SECTION D. The Employer shall deduct from the wages of employees who have completed their 90-day probationary period and signed an authorization for voluntary dues check-off for fees and dues in such amounts designated by the union. The obligation of the employer under this shall apply only to those employees who have signed an authorization for deduction of fees or dues.

Within ten (10) days of hiring a new employee, Employer shall provide to the union the new employees name, address, telephone number, email address, and date of hire. Upon request, Employer annually shall provide to the union the same personal information for all employees represented by the union. A union representative will be allowed one fifteen-minute meeting with the new employee, during working hours, immediately following the employers new hire orientation.

When authorized by the employee, the deduction of union fees and dues shall be made on a weekly basis. In any pay period during which no wages are due the employee or the wages due are insufficient to cover the required deduction, the employer will deduct whatever portion of the required amount can be deducted.

Dues withheld by the employer shall be remitted to the union not later than the 20th day of the following month. The union shall promptly refund dues improperly deducted and remitted to the union and shall furnish the employer with a record of the refund. The union shall defend, indemnify and hold the employer harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, suits, costs, attorney's fees and all liability whatsoever resulting from any action taken or not taken by the employer for the purpose of complying with this article

SECTION E. This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties hereto, their successors, administrators, executors and assigns. In the event an entire operation or any part thereof is sold, leased or transferred, such operation shall continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement for the life thereof. The Employer shall give notice of the existence of this Agreement to any purchaser, transferee, lessee, assignee, etc., of the operation covered by this Agreement or any part thereof, and will require such purchaser, transferee, lessee, assignee, etc., to assume, as part of the transaction, all of the obligations of this contract. Such notice shall be in writing, with a copy to the Union, no later than seven (7) days prior to the effective date of sale. If the Employer purchases or forms a second business (and not a transfer or continuation of its current operations) this section shall not be deemed to apply to said second business.

The above paragraphs shall not be applicable when, in the judgment of the Trustees, the delinquency results from a clerical error or a bona fide difference or dispute concerning eligibility. The Employer agrees that applicable payroll records shall be made available for audit to employees of the Health and Welfare Fund and/or Pension Fund, as directed by action of the Board of Trustees of these funds.

SECTION E. If the Employer fails to make prompt and timely payments of monthly contributions required by this Article, and such delinquency results in an employee or beneficiary or dependent being denied or being rendered ineligible for benefits otherwise payable under the Plans provided by the Trustees, then in such event, the Employer shall be fully and personally responsible to (and hereby agrees to pay) such employee or beneficiary or dependent for all such losses or benefits.
