(20) days from the date on which the dispute, complaint, or grievance first arose, If the Union or employee is submitting the grievance, it shall be mailed to Charles Cummins at the Company's headquarters in pre-addressed envelopes and a carbon or photocopy shall be kept. If the Company is submitting the grievance, it should be mailed to the Union or its attorney. The other party to the dispute shall then have thirty (30) days from receipt of the grievance in which to respond in writing to it.

Step 3: If a grievance is not then satisfactorily settled at Step 2, it may, within thirty (30) days of receipt of a written response be referred by either party to arbitration in strict accordance with the provisions of this Agreement pertaining to arbitration.

Section 2. Any disputes, complaints, or grievances arising from alleged violations of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived, unless the same are presented in writing for settlement and determination at Step 2 of this grievance procedure within twenty (20) days from the date on which said dispute, complaint, or grievance first arose.

The Company shall bear the cost of preparing and presenting its case to the arbitrator, and the Union shall bear the cost of preparing and presenting its case to the arbitrator.

All other expenses of arbitration including, but not limited to, the arbitrator's fee, the cost of recording and transcribing testimony before the arbitrator, and the hiring of a space in which the arbitration proceedings are held, shall be divided equally between the parties.

Section 4. The function of the arbitrator shall be of a judicial rather than legislative nature. Subject to the foregoing qualifications and limitations, the arbitrator's award shall be final and binding upon the Company, the Union, and any aggrieved employee.

Section 5. If the Union fails, refuses, or declines to prosecute a grievance on behalf of an employee, or if the Company and the Union settle any grievance on behalf of an employee hereunder, the employee who has filed such grievance or on whose behalf it has been filed shall be conclusively bound thereby and the Union and the aggrieved employee shall thereafter be stopped to revive or further prosecute said grievance. The Union shall not be deemed responsible for any violation by the Company of its obligations under the Agreement. However, If action or inaction taken by the Union regarding an employee grievance results in an increase in liability for the Company beyond the liability which would have accrued had the grievance been taken to arbitration by the Union, as provided for herein, then such additional liability shall fall upon the Union and not the Company. It is agreed that the time for processing a grievance under this Agreement for purposes of computing additional liability shall in no event exceed ninety (90) days from the date on which a written grievance is first filed or should have been filed.

Section 6. The Company shall have no duty to arbitrate any matter which arises subsequent to the termination of this Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Section 7. In the event the Union declines for any reason to take a grievance to arbitration, then the Company and the Union may each request that any aggrieved employee sign a release in settlement of all claims which he or she may have under this Agreement. If such release is not obtained, then the party requesting such release will have thirty (30) days from the denial of the request to take the matter to arbitration.
