Section 2. The Employer agrees that during the term of this Agreement it will not enter into an agreement regarding terms and conditions of employment of the employees in this bargaining unit with any other labor organization nor will it enter into any individual agreement with employees in the bargaining unit regarding terms and conditions of employment which contradicts the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 UNION SECURITY

Section 1. Employees shall become members of the Union upon completion of their first thirty (30) days of employment.

The Employer agrees to deduct Union dues and initiation fees and/or reinstatement fees and uniform assessments from the wages of the employees in the bargaining unit who provide the Employer with a voluntary written authorization, which shall not be revocable for a period of more than one (1) year or beyond the termination of the date of this Agreement, whichever occurs sooner.

The deduction of the Union dues shall be on a bi-weekly basis and forwarded to the Union office monthly. In the event no wages are due the employee, or if there are insufficient funds to cover the required deduction, the Employer will deduct whatever portion of the required amount that can be deducted. The Employer and the Union during the interim period of this contract shall by mutual agreement be authorized to alter or amend the functional procedures of this Section only if necessary.

The Union shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that shall arise out of or by reason of action taken or not taken by the Employer for the purpose of complying with any of the provisions of this Article, or in reliance on any list, notice or assignment furnished under any of the provisions of this Article.

Section 2. A designated bulletin board shall be made available to the Union for the posting of Union business notices. All notices posted on the bulletin board shall be initiated either by the Union Representative or a steward. No material shall be posted on the bulletin board which is derogatory to the Employer, its management or facilities; derogatory to individuals either expressly or by implication; or disruptive. The Employer reserves the right to remove any material that is inconsistent with this paragraph and shall promptly advise the Union Representative or steward if the Employer has removed material.

Section 3. The Employer agrees to recognize stewards elected or selected by the Union as provided in this section, subject to the following stipulations:

- a. The Union agrees to notify the Employer in writing of all designated stewards and replacements.
- b. Stewards shall not leave their work stations for Union business without prior permission of their designated supervisors and they shall notify their designated supervisors upon return to their work station. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. Permission to leave a work station for Union business without loss of pay will be limited to grievance and disciplinary meetings with the Employer.

ARTICLE 4 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Section 1. Except as expressly modified or restricted by a specific provision of this Agreement, all statutory and inherent managerial rights, prerogatives, and functions are retained and vested exclusively in the Employer, including but not limited to the rights to reprimand, suspend, discharge, or otherwise discipline employees; to determine the number of employees to be employed; to hire employees, determine their qualifications and assign and direct their work; to promote, demote, transfer, layoff and recall employees to work; to set the standards of productivity, the products to be produced and/or the services to be rendered; to determine the amount and forms of compensation for employees; to maintain the efficiency of operations; to determine the personnel, methods, means, and facilities by which operations are conducted; to set the starting and quitting time and the number of hours and shifts to be worked; to use independent contractors to perform work or services; to subcontract, contract out, close down, or relocate the Employer's operations or any part thereof; to expand, reduce, alter, combine, transfer, assign, or cease any job, department, operation, or service; to control and regulate the use of machinery, facilities, equipment, and other property of the Employer; to introduce new or improved services, methods, materials, machinery and equipment; to determine the number, location and operation of departments of the Employer; to issue, amend and revise policies, rules, regulations, and practices; and to take whatever action is either necessary or advisable to determine, manage and fulfill the mission of the Employer.

ARTICLE 5 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

Section 1. All new employees, or those rehired after termination, shall be probationary for the first ninety (90) days of continuous paid service. For employees hired prior to October 1st, 2010, once eligibility has been established, the employee shall not lose eligibility due to involuntary reductions of hours.

Section 2. The Employer's obligation under this Article 9 is limited to the payment of the amount of premium specified. The Employer has no liability for the failure or the refusal of the insurance carrier to honor an employee's claim or to pay benefits and no such action on the part of the insurance carrier shall be attributable to the Employer or constitute a breach of this Agreement by the Employer. Seniority may be exercised for layoff and recall against the most junior employee in the above seniority departments. Employees shall receive no less than seven (7) days' notice of layoff where reasonably possible.

Section 3. An employee shall retain recall rights following layoff for the same period that the employee retains seniority under Sec. 2(e) of this Article. Failure of any employee to report as directed by the Employer will constitute voluntary resignation. Notice of recall shall be given in writing either personally delivered or sent by mail to the last address which the employee has on file with the Employer. At the Employer's option, notice of recall may be accomplished by telephone.

Section 4. The Employer agrees to supply the Union with a current seniority list upon request. Section 4. An employee who is called to serve on jury duty shall be granted an unpaid leave of absence for the days when jury duty is required, except that an employee shall be granted up to seven (7) days of paid leave during times when the employee is required to serve on jury duty, provided the employee remits to the Employer the juror fee paid to the employee.

Section 5. Subject to the provisions of this Section, up to six (6) weeks of unpaid parental leave shall be granted to a father or a mother in conjunction with the birth or adoption of a child. In order to be eligible for parental leave, the employee must have averaged at least twenty (20) hours of work per week over the preceding twelve (12) months, must commence the parental leave no more than six (6) weeks after the birth or adoptive placement of the child, and must request the parental leave in writing to the Director at least four (4) weeks in advance of the proposed commencement of the leave except where the need for the leave is not reasonably foreseeable four (4) weeks in advance, in which case the employee must request the leave as soon as the need for the leave is reasonably foreseeable. Upon expiration of the parental leave and return to work, the employee shall be assigned to the employee's former position or a position of comparable duties, hours and pay, unless the employee's position has been eliminated.

If during parental leave, the Employer experiences a layoff and the employee would have lost his/her position pursuant to the layoff and recall provisions of this Agreement, had the employee not been on parental leave, then the employee is not entitled to reinstatement in the employee's former position and, in such circumstance, the employee shall retain all rights under the layoff and recall provisions of this Agreement as if the employee had not been on parental leave.

Section 6. Leaves to attend school conferences or classroom activities related to the employee's child shall be available to the extent required by applicable law. This leave shall be unpaid except that accrued personal paid leave may be used for such leave.

Section 7. Upon return to work from a leave of absence, the employee will be restored to the job previously held, or to a comparable job with regard to duties and rate of pay. Notice of intent to return to work shall be given to the department's supervisor by the Wednesday prior to the schedule posting in order to receive scheduled hours.

Section 8. All leaves of absence under this Article are without pay unless specified. Seniority does not accrue during any unpaid leave of absence, except with respect to workers' compensation leaves.

Section 9. Any employee who is granted a leave of absence and while on such leave of absence accepts employment with another employer, or who goes into business for themselves, is subject to discharge.

Section 10. Leave of absence of up to one (1) year shall be granted to an employee elected or appointed to Union office, on condition that at the expiration of the leave the employee shall be returned to the first available vacancy in the employee's classification.

Employees shall be allowed one day of funeral leave without loss of pay in the event of the death of an aunt, uncle, niece or nephew.

Section 12. Employees injured on the job shall not be docked for any part of the day in which the injury occurs, providing a call to the Employer is made from the doctor's office, by doctor's personnel, notifying them of the extent of the injury. If the injury is not serious, the employee must return to work at once upon leaving the doctor's office. In no instance shall the Employer be obligated to pay an employee for more than the number of hours the employee was scheduled to work.

ARTICLE 16 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. This Agreement shall represent the complete Agreement between the Union and the Employer.

Section 2. The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make requests and proposals with respect to any subject matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the complete understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of said right and opportunity to negotiate are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, the Employer and the Union, for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered by this Agreement, even though such subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time they negotiated or signed this Agreement, unless they mutually agree to so bargain.

Section 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, in the event that the Employer during the term of this Agreement creates a new classification within the bargaining unit, the Employer agrees to enter into negotiation with the Union solely for the purpose of establishing a wage rate for such classification.

Section 4. If any provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction and after the conclusion of all available appeals to be in conflict with any state or federal law, only that provision(s) shall be considered inapplicable, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. The Employer and the Union agree that they will meet within a thirty (30) day period following the declaration of invalidity to begin negotiations upon a substitute clause to replace the provision(s) found to be invalid. This places no time limitation on the parties during which they may negotiate.

Section 5. Employees will be notified by written/posted communication when changes are made regarding resident's care and policies.

Section 6. Breakfast is available for purchase by the employee for two dollars ($2.00). Lunch and dinner are provided to scheduled employees free of charge. (There shall be no deviation from the menu in effect for such meals.)

ARTICLE 17

Holidays will commence with the night shift on the prior day through the afternoon shift of the holiday with the exception of Christmas Eve Day which includes only the afternoon shift.

Section 2. Employees who are required to work on one of the above-named holidays shall receive pay for work at time and one-half (1½) the employee's regular rate of pay for that specific holiday.

Section 3. Employees can volunteer to work on holidays and such opportunities will be rotated among those volunteering, as equitably as possible, consistent with efficient operation of the Employer.
