- 1.1 The Employer recognizes said Union as the sole representative of its Home Health Aides, PCAs and Homemakers scheduled and working out of its Virginia, Minnesota operations, excluding supervisory employees, as defined by the National Labor Relations Act, and Registered Nurses and Licensed Practical Nurses, for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to the hours of labor, rates of pay, and working conditions hereinafter specified. The "sleepover" night position will not be part of the bargaining unit. However, Union employees will accrue benefits on the required "awake hours" which consists of two (2) hours. Union employees will also accrue benefits for a minimum of one (1) hour each time they are awakened.

1.2 It shall be a condition of employment that all employees of the Employer covered by this Agreement who are members of the Union and in good standing on the date of execution of this Agreement shall remain members in good standing. It shall also be a condition of employment that all employees covered by this Agreement and hired on or after its date of execution shall, after ninety (90) calendar days following the execution of this Agreement, become and remain members in good standing in the Union.

1.3 Dues Check-Off: The Employer agrees to deduct union dues, initiation fees, and assessments from the wages of employees in the bargaining unit who provide the Employer with a voluntary, written authorization which shall not be revocable for a period of more than one year, or beyond the termination date of this Agreement, whichever occurs sooner. One and one-half percent (1½%) deductions will be made biweekly by the Employer from the wages of employees and will be transmitted to the Union every four (4) weeks. The Employer agrees under the contract requirements above to provide a new employee with a Union Membership Application and Dues Authorization at the time of hire. The Union agrees that, should the Employer take an initial deduction prior to the completion of ninety (90) calendar days, such amount shall be promptly refunded by the Union to the employee upon request.

In the event no wages are then due the employee, or are insufficient to cover required deduction, the deduction for such month shall nevertheless be made from the first wages of adequate amount next due the employee and thereupon transmitted to the Union.

Either party shall promptly notify the other in writing of any revocation of the aforesaid authorization.

1.4 Accretion: This Agreement shall apply to the Employer's operations as performed on the effective date of this Agreement, and this Agreement and Union representation thereunder shall also extend to any extension, expansion, or relocation of such present and related operations within a thirty (30) mile radius of the Eveleth, Minnesota, office.

1.5 Successor Clause: In the event of any sale, purchase, merger or other transaction affecting ownership of Employer's business or ownership of the assets of Employer's business, Employer shall make known to the Union prior to said transaction the nature of the transaction and further shall make known to all parties to the transaction the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Following any such transaction, Employer shall use its best efforts to assure that:

- A. All employees shall be provided employment by the successor employer.
- B. A new seniority list shall be drafted and posted by the successor employer upon which the seniority of each employee will date from his/her earliest date of employment with the Employer or the successor employer.

- C. If there is to be a reduction in work force as a result of such transaction, any such reduction shall be in inverse order according to the amount of continuous service of the employees with the Employer or the successor employer; and

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

6.1 Any dispute or controversy involving the interpretation or application of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement shall be submitted for settlement under the grievance procedure as herein provided:

STEP 1. Any employee who believes that the Employer has violated any of the terms or conditions of this contract in relation to his/her employment shall be considered to have a complaint and such employee shall immediately and promptly take such complaint to the immediate supervisor.

Such employee and supervisor shall attempt to resolve said complaint. No complaint will be considered by any supervisor or representative of the Employer unless it is brought to the attention of the supervisor or representative of the Employer within five (5) days or its alleged occurrence, except as hereinafter provided as to wages

STEP 2. If said employee and supervisor cannot resolve said complaint within such five (5) day period, the employee shall reduce the complaint to writing which shall be considered a grievance. The grievance shall be so reduced to writing and submitted within ten (10) days after the occurrence of the alleged violation of this Agreement to the Employer; provided, however, that complaints or grievance as to the amount of money due and payable to any employee for wages, hours worked, vacation allowances and days off may be filed and furnished to the Employer within thirty (30) days after the first regular payday following the occurrence of such alleged violation relating to such wages. Failure to give any such notice or follow the time frames of any grievance shall constitute a permanent waiver and bar of the grievance and the employee shall be forever foreclosed from raising any complaint or grievance in regard thereto. After such grievance is reduced to and submitted in writing, the employee shall be represented by the Business Representative of the Union or such other persons as may be designated by the Union to represent such employee, not exceeding, however, three (3) in number.

STEP 3. If such grievance cannot be settled promptly between the parties within five (5) calendar days after the delivery of written notice of the grievance, the matter may be submitted to an arbitrator by either party. Such an appeal to arbitration shall be in writing and served on the other party. A representative of the Employer and representative of the Union shall attempt to select such arbitrator. If they cannot agree upon the arbitrator, then either the Employer or the Union may request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a list of five (5) names from which the arbitrator shall be selected by elimination. The decision or award of said arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties. The expenses and remuneration of the arbitrator shall be borne by the parties equally.

- 6.2 The Union will not authorize, assist or support any strike or stoppage of work because of any matter covered by this Agreement for which procedure for settlement herein provided is available, but has not been utilized. Participation in any strike, slow-down or stoppage of work brought either by action of the Union in violation of this Agreement or by action of individuals or groups without Union authority shall be just cause for dismissal or discipline by the Employer, subject to the grievance procedure herein provided.
- 6.3 At any step in this grievance procedure, the Executive Committee of the Local Union shall have the final authority in respect to any aggrieved employee covered by this Agreement to decline to process a grievance, complaint, difficulty or dispute further if in the judgement of the Executive Committee such grievance or dispute lacks merit or lacks justification under the terms of this Agreement to the satisfaction of the Union Executive Committee.
