In the event of job vacancies, the Employer shall give qualified part-time employees in order of seniority such full-time jobs. In the event of a job vacancy involving the availability of a full-time position in the bargaining unit, the Employer shall give written notice of such job vacancy by posting upon an appropriate bulletin board a notice that such job vacancy exists, setting forth therein the job category and schedule of work hours available. This notice shall be posted before notice of the job vacancy is given to non-employees of Employer's facility.

8.2 Employees covered by this Agreement electing to resign or quit their employment shall give the Employer two (2) week's written notice and shall continue in the Employer's service during this two (2) week period, with the exception that the employee may leave sooner when competent replacement can be made by the Employer. The Employer is to furnish printed forms of such resignation. Employees who are terminated for just cause or terminate their employment without giving the Employer the required notice or leave their employment before the end of the two (2) week period (except in the event of accidental death) shall forfeit all accrued PTO hours since their last anniversary date of employment and other benefits to which such employees may be entitled, except wages earned and earned PTO hours through the date of their last anniversary. The Employer shall give regular full-time employees two (2) week's written notice of termination or two (2) weeks pay in lieu thereof, except in the case of a discharge for just cause. Employees, with one or more years of continuous service, who follow proper procedure as described in this paragraph will be paid at all PTO hours available upon termination.

8.3 If the employee fails to report to work as scheduled, or to furnish the Employer with a justifiable excuse within twenty-four (24) hours thereof, such failure to report to work shall be conclusively presumed to be a resignation from the service of the Employer and termination of such employee's seniority and employment, provided, however, that if such employee can within three (3) days furnish the Employer with reasonable proof that such employee could not notify the Employer of his absence because of illness or unforeseen emergency, then such employee shall be reinstated without any break in the service record.

ADDENDUM

to the Collective Bargaining Agreement between UFCW Local 1189 & St. Anthony Park Home
Effective April 1, 2001 through March 31, 2004

During contract negotiations in 2001, both parties reached agreement on a change in the Employer's attendance policy. This change is in response to the Employer's need to retain a quality work force.

The Union and the Employer agreed to the following addition to the Employer's attendance policy:

Upon receiving the 12th point in attendance the Employer will have their schedule reduced by one day per pay period. This reduction will remain in force for a three month period. If after three (3) months there are no more occurrences of absenteeism, the day will be returned.

If an additional six points occur, a second day will be removed from the employees schedule. If after three (3) months there are no more occurrences of absenteeism, the day will be returned.

These shift reductions are in lieu of termination.
