Department Reports

- Retail: Union Representative Tami Denn-Bauer reported on current status of corporate Cub re-opening the St. Paul inner city stores overnight. Originally this was supposed to commence at the beginning of February. It has been postponed until March. Dennis Reeves reported that at the Midway Cub no members have volunteered to work those overnight shifts. Local 1189 has voiced our concerns to the employer regarding the safety of our members. Further discussion held on Instacart grievance settlement with Jerry's
- Manufacturing: Union Representative Patricia Cervantes reported that all of her members in this industry are doing well. Membership meetings will begin in Long Prairie in the near future.
- Political: Assistant Organizing Director Diana Tastad-Damer reported on current organizing drives and representation elections. MN AFL-CIO is hosting upcoming meetings regarding the 2020 election season. The next meeting is Monday, March 2, 2020 at the St. Paul Regional Labor Federation.

Officer's Reports

Secretary-Treasurer Jim Gleb reported the Instacart grievances have been settled with Jerry's. We still have this issue pending with corporate Cub. The legislative session is just starting. The cashless grocery store bill was introduced and no support; will be dropped. A meeting was held with Minnesota State Speaker of the House Melissa Hortman regarding numerous concerns of our long-term care members.

Secretary-Treasurer Jim Gleb gave the preliminary financial report ending January 31, 2020 unaudited financials for the year as follows:

Checking/Savings	$744,827.48
